The Problem: Hidden Nasties in other products

Bath bombs that stain

They look fun but they stain everything and irritate skin

Hidden palm oil

Nature shouldn't suffer for our vanity

Misleading marketing

Statements like "Designed in Australia" (but mass-produced overseas...)

Our Answer: Conscious, natural, FUN!

Vibrant + skin friendly

Gentle, nourishing ingredients that don't stain or irritate.

Palm oil free, cruelty free

Palm oil-free, never tested on animals, eco-conscious packaging.

Australian Made and Owned

All operations are based here in Australia + we are GENUINELY certified Australian Made.

More About Us

We are a conscious bath and body self-care range, born from a love of natural, nourishing self-care products and concern for our environment.

We care about the planet, and we hold a special place in our hearts for Orangutans. We actively support their fight for survival by partnering with the Orangutan Project, based out of Perth, Western Australia.
